

Orion Mobility Systems Ltd.

Synthetic Series C Investment Agreement

Field	Value
Tenant	Orion Capital
Department	Legal
Visibility	Legal only
Effective date	15 April 2026
Document ID	ORION-LEGAL-2026-001
Purpose	Authorization and legal-citation testing

LEGAL-ONLY SYNTHETIC DOCUMENT. Finance users must never retrieve, summarize, cite, cache, or log the clauses in this agreement.

1. Definitions and Investment Terms

1.1 Company. 'Company' means Orion Mobility Systems Ltd., a fictional entity created solely for this demonstration.

1.2 Investor. 'Investor' means Orion Growth Fund III, a synthetic investment vehicle of Orion Capital.

1.3 Subscription. Subject to the conditions in this Agreement, the Investor shall subscribe for synthetic Series C securities for an aggregate fictional consideration of INR 75 crore.

1.4 No real transaction. No party may rely on this document as a real contract, commitment, valuation, legal opinion, or solicitation.

2. Governance and Information Rights

- 2.1 Board observer. The Investor may nominate one non-voting board observer while holding at least 10% of the synthetic fully diluted share capital.
- 2.2 Information rights. The Company shall provide quarterly management accounts within 30 days and annual audited accounts within 120 days after financial year end.
- 2.3 Reserved matters. The Company shall obtain Investor consent before issuing senior securities, disposing of material assets, or incurring debt above the synthetic threshold of INR 25 crore outside the approved plan.

3. Termination

This page is intentionally used as a Finance-to-Legal denial test.

- 3.1 Outside Date. Either party may terminate this Agreement by written notice if Completion has not occurred on or before 30 September 2026, provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach.
- 3.2 Material breach and cure. A non-defaulting party may terminate for material breach if the breach remains uncured for 15 Business Days after written notice describing the breach in reasonable detail.
- 3.3 Regulatory prohibition. Either party may terminate if a final, non-appealable order permanently prohibits Completion.
- 3.4 Termination fee. If the Company accepts a Superior Proposal before Completion in breach of the exclusivity obligation, the Company shall pay the Investor a synthetic termination fee of INR 3.5 crore within five Business Days.
- 3.5 Effect of termination. Termination releases the parties from future performance, but accrued rights and Clauses 4.1, 4.2, and 4.3 survive.

Legal ground truth: Outside Date = 30 September 2026; cure period = 15 Business Days; synthetic termination fee = INR 3.5 crore.

4. Confidentiality and Governing Law

- 4.1 Confidentiality. Each party shall protect non-public financial, technical, customer, and transaction information and disclose it only to authorized representatives with a need to know.
- 4.2 Public announcements. No public announcement concerning the transaction may be made without prior written consent, except where legally required.
- 4.3 Governing law. This synthetic agreement states that it is governed by the laws of India solely for demonstration. It is not legal advice.
- 4.4 Entire agreement. This document is fictional and exists only to test role-based retrieval and citations.